Sixty-fourth session
Agenda item 112 (g)
Appointments to fill vacancies in subsidiary organs and other appointments

Appointment of members of the Joint Inspection Unit

Note by the President of the General Assembly

1. As indicated in paragraph 3 of the note by the Secretary-General of 10 June 2009 (A/64/106), the General Assembly is required, during its current session, to appoint four members of the Joint Inspection Unit to fill the vacancies that will arise from the expiration of the terms of office of Messrs. Gérard Biraud, Papa Louis Fall, István Posta and Cihan Terzi on 31 December 2010.

2. In accordance with the procedures described in article 3, paragraph 1, of the statute of the Joint Inspection Unit and pursuant to General Assembly resolution 61/238, the President of the General Assembly, at the 35th plenary meeting, on 3 November 2009, having consulted Member States and having drawn up a list of countries from among the Group of African States, the Group of Eastern European States and the Group of Western European and other States, requested France, Hungary, Senegal and Turkey to propose candidates (see annexes I-IV) to serve for a period of five years beginning 1 January 2011.

3. The candidates, in accordance with paragraph 7 of General Assembly resolution 59/267 of 23 December 2004, should have experience in at least one of the following fields: oversight, audit, inspection, investigation, evaluation, finance, project evaluation, programme evaluation, human resources management, management, public administration, monitoring and/or programme performance, in addition to knowledge of the United Nations system and its role in international relations.

4. The President of the General Assembly has held the consultations described in article 3, paragraph 2, of the statute of the Joint Inspection Unit, including consultations with the President of the Economic and Social Council and with the Secretary-General, in his capacity as Chairman of the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination. The replies received from the President of the Economic and Social Council and from the Secretary-General to identical letters addressed to them on 6 November 2009 by the President of the Assembly are attached (see annexes V and VI).

Annex II

Note verbale dated 4 November 2009 from the Permanent Mission of Hungary to the United Nations addressed to the President of the General Assembly

The Permanent Mission of Hungary to the United Nations presents its compliments to the President of the General Assembly and has the honour to refer to the deliberations of the General Assembly on 3 November 2009 regarding the appointment of members of the Joint Inspection Unit. The Permanent Mission wishes to confirm the intention of the Government of Hungary to nominate Mr. István Posta to the post of Inspector of the Joint Inspection Unit for the period 2011-2015.

Mr. István Posta has had a long and distinguished diplomatic career at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Hungary, serving in different positions of bilateral and multilateral diplomacy, including as Ambassador, Permanent Representative and Deputy Permanent Representative of his country at different United Nations headquarters. He represented Hungary at a number of major United Nations world conferences and events.

Currently serving his first term (2006-2010) as an Inspector of the Joint Inspection Unit, Mr. István Posta has served with distinction and dedication. His knowledge and wide-ranging experience have largely contributed to the implementation of the mandate of the Joint Inspection Unit while being the author of several inspection and evaluation documents. The Government of Hungary — attaching great importance to the work of the Joint Inspection Unit as the independent oversight body of the United Nations system — is convinced that Mr. István Posta has already demonstrated his valuable contribution to the work of the Joint Inspection Unit, which together with his outstanding performance as an Inspector during his first term of office, make him an excellent candidate for this post.

István Posta

Born on 19 November 1950 in Balmazújváros (Hungary)

Nationality: Hungarian

Inspector of the Joint Inspection Unit, former diplomat and Ambassador at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Hungary

Married and has three children

Languages: English, Spanish, Russian and Hungarian

Education

Master of Economics (Analysis and processing of economic information), 1974, University of Economics in St. Petersburg, Russian Federation.

Master of Political Sciences, 1989, Institute of Political Sciences, Budapest.

Postgraduate studies in public administration, 2000, Institute of Public Administration, Budapest.

Diplomatic career

2006-present Inspector, member of the Joint Inspection Unit.

As a member of the Joint Inspection Unit, he actively participated in the everyday work of the only independent external, system-wide oversight body of the United Nations system. He conducted a number of evaluations and inspections, and coordinated the preparation of several of the Unit's reports and notes. The reports he prepared as coordinator or co-author dealt with different subjects of human resources management (age structure, national competitive recruitment examination, internship, Junior Professional Officers), as well as issues of administrative and financial operation of United Nations organizations (common services, off-shoring, telecommunication, procurement). For his considerable work, he received recognition and support from the Chief Executives Board and the governing bodies of the organizations.

2000-2004 Deputy Permanent Representative of Hungary to the United Nations, New York.

As Deputy Permanent Representative of Hungary to the United Nations in New York, he was responsible for the overall political and administrative management of the Mission staff, as well as the General Assembly and the United Nations reform-related issues. He coordinated the Hungarian participation at the Millennium Summit, participated in the work of the General Assembly and its subsidiary bodies and gained further experiences by working with United Nations funds and programmes.

1997-2000 Deputy Director-General for International Organizations, Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

As Deputy Director-General for International Organizations in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Hungary, he played an important role in the formulation and implementation of the Hungarian United Nations policy. He was responsible for the system-wide coordination of the Hungarian participation in various United Nations funds and programmes and accumulated experience at national and international levels in administrative, budgetary and coordination areas. Working as a team leader, he acquired considerable managerial and organizational skills.

He was responsible for the Hungarian participation in United Nations peacekeeping operations and for the inter-agency coordination of Hungarian participation in the international economic organizations. During these years, he gained extensive knowledge and experience of working with United Nations specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA).

1996-1997 Permanent Representative of Hungary to the United Nations Office and other international organizations in Vienna.

1992-1996 Acting Permanent Representative of Hungary to the United Nations Office and other international organizations in Vienna.

Having an overall responsibility for the work of the Hungarian United Nations Mission he was an active participant in the day-to-day work of the policymaking organs of the Vienna-based organizations. He chaired several major meetings of IAEA and the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO). As President of the Industrial Development Board and Chairman of the mandated working group, he played an important role in elaborating and launching the UNIDO reform process, which resulted in the adoption and implementation of the business plan for UNIDO.

1988-1992 International Organizations Department, Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

As a Desk Officer he was responsible for the Hungarian participation in the work of the Vienna-based international organizations and for the coordination of related activities of the governmental agencies of Hungary.

1984-1988 First Secretary, Embassy of Hungary to Cuba.

Serving as a diplomat responsible for international economic cooperation, he gained experience in bilateral diplomacy and acquired in-depth knowledge in the field of economics, development and scientific cooperation.

1984 Desk Officer, Latin American Territorial Department, Ministry of Foreign Affairs

Inspector István Posta was the coordinator or co-author of the following reports and notes during his term of office:

Age Structure of Human Resources in the Organizations of the United Nations System (JIU/REP/2007/4)

Review of the National Competitive Recruitment Examination as a Recruitment Tool (JIU/REP/2007/9)

Review of Selected Telecommunication Issues and Use of Voice Over Internet Protocol Technologies in the United Nations System Organizations (JIU/NOTE/2007/2)
